

Ms. Alexander is an astute independent thinker and problem solver with over 15 years extensive social work and welfare training. Her knowledge and experience dealing with the sick, elderly, adults, youths and children uniquely supports BALM's Mission of Building Strong Individuals, Families and Communities.

Marie Alexander, Director, Outreach Programs

A mother and active church official with over 15 years extensive social work, welfare training and experience dealing with the elderly, adults, youths and children. CPR certified child and adult care provider. Years of experience in New York inner cities and suburbs volunteering and serving in food pantries and shelters.