

Ms. Greaves knowledge and over 15 years extensive social work and welfare training and experience dealing with the elderly, adults, youths and children uniquely supports BALM's Mission of Building Strong Individuals, Families and Communities.

Marie Greaves, Director, Outreach Programs

A mother and active church official with over 15 years extensive social work, welfare training and experience dealing with the elderly, adults, youths and children. CPR certified child and adult care provider. Years of experience in New York inner cities and suburbs volunteering and serving in food pantries and shelters.